

Khalid Ahmed Al Mansour, Chief Executive Officer

Khalid Al Mansoor is a Senior Executive holding a Bachelors of Arts in Business Administration, from the University of California State San Bernardino CSUSB 1991.

Mr. Al Mansoor has successfully developed a global and diversified investment portfolio with primary focus on Bullion and Energy for the the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority; co-managed the performance of the fund managers cutting across a wide spectrum of industries.

He has successfully participated in the development reengineering/restructuring of the Abu-Dhabi Retirement Pensions, and also took a lead role in the branding initiatives, including membership in the fund's Management Committee, heading the IT Division and serving as fund's HQ Project Director.

Mr. Al Mansoor held a position of an Advisor to the CEO of Abu Dhabi Ports Company, an Abu Dhabi Government initiative to manage all commercial ports, where he managed various key projects, including industrial and warehousing/distribution infrastructure to support the development plans of new port facility.

Managing Partner and a co-founder of Global Force Capital, a premier investment boutique, specializing in sourcing, deployment, and management of PE/VC including provision of offset advisory.