

Feras Hatoum, Director of Marketing and Investors Relations

Feras Hatoum is Director of Marketing and Investors Relations. He has over 8 years of experience in investment banking, financial analysis and managing client relationships. Feras is experienced in marketing investment products to high networth individuals and institutional investors. Prior to joining Injaz Mena he worked with Rana Investment Company, Saudi Arabia., where he held various positions of increasing responsibility. At Rana, he worked on managing existing and new high networth individual and institutional client relationships, focusing on a wide range of private equity and mutual fund investments.

Feras holds a Bachelors degree in Banking and Finance from the Lebanese American University.